Frank Lindsay Alberta Bantam Training Camp

Alberta Golf will be hosting the third annual Frank Lindsay Alberta Bantam Camp May 5th and 6th in Calgary. Alberta has selected 12 Bantam Competitors from last years Championship at the Canals of Delacour Golf Course.

Alberta Golf Coach, Randy Robb will play a lead role at the camp. This camp has been designed to offer an experience of provincial level coaching for this younger age group. Todd Halpen of Country Hills who has recently turned professional will also lend a helping hand at the bantam camp through post secondary discussions, tournament preparation and competitive play.

The Bantam competitors will be at Redwood Meadows for a day in tournament preparation and on course management on the 5th. Tuesday May 6th will see the group head out to River Spirit GC for effective practice sessions and on course competitions. The Bantam Camp allows top-level golfers the opportunity to develop many of the technical and non-technical skills of golf, which are vital to gain an edge in provincial, national and international competition. The 2008 Frank Lindsay Bantam Championship will be hosted by The Nanton Golf Course. For more information on this championship or to register please go to the Alberta Golf Website at www.albertagolf.org.
